

In 1990, PGA TOUR golfers Billy Andrade and Brad Faxon established Billy Andrade - Brad Faxon Charities for Children (AFCC) to make a meaningful charitable impact in their own Rhode Island and SE Massachusetts community. Through AFCC, Brad and Billy fund specific programs and projects that target at-risk children. In the 29 years since inception, AFCC has granted more than $7,221,905.58 to 248 charitable organizations to improve the lives of local children. Here is a list of our grant recipients:
